General notes

Adding a particular

Place a cross in the 'add' box in the left hand column when adding a new particular to your register of interests.

Removing a particular

Place a cross in the 'remove' box in the left hand column when removing a particular from your register of interests.

If there is insufficient space on this form for all of the details you are required to give you may attach additional papers for that purpose. You must sign and date each additional paper.

When completing this form, insert the words 'not applicable', where appropriate.

The completed form (with an envelope marked 'confidential') is to be sent, within 30 days of commencement of duty or any changes of circumstances to the chief executive officer of your local government.

Related persons

A person related to a councillor need not include information regarding an interest held jointly or in common with the councillor which is already included in the councillor's register of interests.

Section notes

The header of each field includes a reference in italics to the relevant section in Schedule 5 of the Local Government Regulation 2012.

The following notes may assist you with completing your register of interests.

#	Notes	Definitions
1	If a councillor, complete section A. If a related person to a councillor, complete section A and B.	A related person is a spouse, a dependent child or someone whose affairs are so closely connected with the affairs of a councillor, chief executive officer or senior executive employee, that a benefit derived by that person, or a substantial part of it, could pass to the councillor, chief executive officer or senior executive employee.
2	2.1 1. If relevant person is a shareholder or has a controlling interest in a corporation state the name of the corporation. 2. If the relevant person holds a controlling interest in the corporation tick the box. 3. List the shareholdings of the corporation in any other corporation/s.	A Corporation includes— • a company, • any body corporate (whether incorporated in this jurisdiction or elsewhere), and • an unincorporated body that under the law of its place of origin, may sue or be sued, or may hold property in the name of its secretary or of an office holder of the body

	1. State the name of the proprietary company/s.
	2. List any investments of the proprietary company/s.
	3. If any of the investments are a subsidiary to the proprietary company tick the box.
	4. In column four list the investments of the subsidiary company you have listed in column two and if the investments include a subsidiary to that company, state the name of the company or its investment(s)—you may need to provide this information in a separate signed attachment.

	The number or monetary value of shares does not need to be stated.

	The monetary value of investments does not need to be stated.
		duly appointed for that purpose.

		Holding company—in relation to a body corporate, means a body corporate of which the first body corporate is a subsidiary.

		Proprietary company—A proprietary company is a company that is registered as, or converts to, a proprietary company under the Corporations Act 2001.

		Share means any of the following:
		• a share in the share capital of the corporation,
		• stock,
		• a convertible note, or
		• an option contract.

		Subsidiary—A body corporate is a subsidiary of another body corporate if, and only if:
		• the other body:
		  o controls the composition of the first body's board ,or o is in a position to cast, or control the casting of, more than one-half of the maximum number of votes that might be cast at a general meeting of the first body, or o holds more than one-half of the issued share capital of the first body (excluding any part of that issued share capital that carries no right to participate beyond a specified amount in a distribution of either profits or capital), or
		• the first body is a subsidiary of a subsidiary of the other body.

3	Complete if you are an officer of a corporation, including if you are an officer of any corporations you have stated in section 2.	Officer of a corporation means:
		• a director or secretary of the corporation; or
		• a person:
		  o who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the business of the corporation, or o who has the capacity to affect significantly the corporation's financial standing, or o in accordance with whose instructions or wishes the directors

#	Notes	Definitions
8	Includes any land leased, owned or mortgaged, whether the interest is held alone, jointly or in common with any other person. Examples of property where you may hold an interest: Residential property leased, owned or mortgaged by you which may be your place of residence or where you have established a business. Commercial property leased, owned or mortgaged by you which may be where you have established a business. Residential property where you are the lessor of a property to another party. Commercial property where you are the lessor of a property to another party. For privacy reasons, if the lessee is a corporation, state the name of the corporation (individuals do not need to be stated). Investment property—property held for capital gain (not leased or inhabited). Native Title land—granted or where an application is pending. The full street address of the property does not need to be stated. The monetary value of investments or beneficial interests does not need to be stated.
9	Amounts of $10,000 or less do not need to be disclosed. The debt does not need to be disclosed if it arises from the supply of goods or services supplied in the ordinary course of your business or the business of a trust or private company. The financial amount of liabilities does not need to be stated. A line of credit does not need to be disclosed until such time as it is used.	Private company—means a proprietary company in which a relevant person holds securities. Trust—means a trust of which a relevant person is a beneficiary.
10	May include such investments as a term life insurance policy where a return of the policy's premium may occur. The monetary value of investments does not need to be stated.	Debenture—see the Corporations Act 2001.

	in, savings or investment accounts do not need to be stated.
12	This does not include gifts received from related persons or other persons related by blood or marriage or friends. Includes election donations made to an individual councillor and election donations made to a group of candidates of which the councillor is associated with.	Gift means either of the following— the transfer of money or other property: without consideration, or for a consideration substantially less than full consideration, or a loan of money or other property made on a permanent or indefinite basis, other than an overdraft facility.
13	This does not include incidental travel or accommodation that involve little to no value. For example, sleeping a night at a family or friend's house or car pooling arrangements.	A person receives a sponsored hospitality benefit if— the person, other than in an official capacity— undertakes travel, or uses accommodation, and a contribution, whether financial or non-financial, for the cost of the travel or accommodation is made by another person. Note: A person does not however receive a sponsored hospitality benefit if the contribution was made by the person's spouse, or other family member or friend unless there could be a perception of a conflict of interest, financial or otherwise, relating to the contribution.
14	Includes honorary patrons, honorary members etc.
15	This excludes: household and personal effects, motor vehicles used mainly for personal use, and superannuation entitlements.
16	Includes income of a proprietary company and of trusts in which the relevant person has an interest. Includes any employment where earnings are more than $500 per year.
17	The particulars required for each other interest of a relevant person are sufficient details of the interest to identify it.	Interest, of the relevant person, means a financial interest or non-financial interest— • of which the relevant person is aware, and • that raises, appears to raise, or could raise, a conflict between the relevant person's duty under the Act and the holder of the interest.

Important note

Failure to complete or update a register of interests can give rise to an offence, with associated penalties to a maximum of 85 penalty units, or 100 penalty units if a councillor intentionally fails to complete or update their register of interest, and/or disqualification from holding office as a councillor
